Lounge that captures the spirit of the times
The breeze of 1950s design has stormed into contemporary collections of lounge furniture, with the best example being the Epocc Lounge. Its soft, rounded form inspired by past eras, fluid lines, and a combination of innovation and comfort prove that history likes to come full circle.

Coffee table
Praising simplicity and drawing from design achievements of past years. Its versatile use in various arrangements allows for creating an interesting interior where vintage design dominates with a touch of freshness. The table has gained lightness through its rounded construction and play with form.

It was designed by Jan Kochański, a well-known Polish designer, who combines technical knowledge and experimentation with materials in his work.
